

Peter Stozier

1748 – 1807

Georgia

PVT Georgia Militia Battles: Kettle Creek, GA Kings Mountain and elsewhere under command of General Elijah Clark and Captain Paddy Carr.

The family had land grant in Rowan County NC. About 1765 Peter, with a permit to build a grist mill in Wilks County. He settled on Kettle Creek, about 6 miles southwest of Washington, GA, near the battle of Kettle Creek. Peter served both as Calvary and Infantry but generally in Calvary.

Peter volunteered May 1779 at Washington, GA and served until May 1784.

Peter Strozier's parents:

Father – Johann Peter Strozier B. 22 June 1718 – Germany D. 17 July 1794 – USA

Mother – Barbara Anna Burghart B. June 1712 – Germany D. 1764 - USA