

John Robinett

1755 – 1835

Virginia

John Robinett was born to Nathan and Elizabeth Robinett on 10 July 1755 in Frederick [now Washington] County, Maryland. He married wife [1] Catherine Carr in 1778 in Monongalia County, Virginia [now West Virginia].

He served during the American Revolutionary War with an one year enlistment on 24 May 1778 in the Monongalia Militia. He appears in 1782 on the “List of Households of Preston” for Preston County, Virginia [now West Virginia]. By 1788, he appears on the Bourbon County, Kentucky tax lists and marries wife [2] Rebecca Frazee in Covington, Kenton County, Kentucky. John Robinett filed a Will on 15 March 1834 at the Boone County, Missouri, court house and died on 25 July 1835 in that some county. He was buried on the family farm.